

STUDENT AND STAFF BULLETIN

April 5, 2010

Attention Seniors please bring copies of your college acceptance letters to the front office so they can be displayed.

Attention Sophomores and Juniors there will be a free, five-week Healthcare Career Summer Academy this summer at Sac City College. You can earn college credits if you take this class. Please see Ms. Hughes for more information.

A Summer Internship at the State Capitol is being offered by the Real World Civics Summer Internship Program. The four-week internship will provide interns with positive examples of public service, the political process and government in general. See Ms. Gould for information and applications.

African-American Student Leadership Conference at Sac State will be held on April 9th. Transportation is provided by the school district. All interested students may obtain the permission form from Mr. Thomas or Ms. Kamilos.

The Career Technical Preparation Department is offering fifty internship positions for this summer. You must be between the ages of 16 and 21, be a Sacramento City Unified School District student, be a U.S. citizen and be on free and reduced lunch. Applications can be picked up in the counseling office. They are due by 5:00 p.m. on April 9th.

Interested in Running for a Class Office? The available ASB positions are posted in the window of the front office. Packets are available in the front office for both elected and appointed positions. Packets are due Friday, April 9th.

Attention Seniors the Sacramento News and Review is sponsoring a college essay contest. They want to see your college application essays. The first prize is $2,010. The deadline is April 15th. Flyers are located in the counseling office.

Attention Juniors and Seniors The West Campus prom, "A Passport to Romance," will be held on Saturday, April 24th, from 7 p.m. to 12 a.m. at the Elks Tower Historic Ballroom. Bids will be $80 and can be purchased at lunch on the stage until April 23rd. Nominations for prom royalty will also be held on the stage. Students who are on academic probation cannot attend. Guest passes are available in the office and are due by April 15th.

The California State PTA is holding a "9 Million Reasons Rally" Thursday, April 29th from 2 to 3:30 p.m. on the north steps of the State Capitol for PTA members or anyone who cares about children.

Census Forms will be arriving in the mail and it is important to return them to the U.S. Census with all household members counted. Federal dollars for education are based on the number of people counted. On average, every person not counted is a loss of about $1,200 a year for ten years.
