

STUDENT AND STAFF BULLETIN

January 11, 2010

Mandatory Ashland Trip Meeting today at 12:30 in room 16.

Mien Club Meeting during lunch today in room 32 to discuss the Mien Conference.

Progress Reports will now be completed on Thursdays. The forms will be available outside of the counseling office as usual.

Only East Lab Students and Business Information Technology Students are allowed to use these labs, unless special arrangements have been made by Ms. Thoene.

Interested In Singing the Star Spangled Banner at a basketball game, please see Mr. Ousley.

Attention National Honor Society Seniors Applications for a $13,000 scholarship from NHS must be postmarked by January 15, 2010. See Ms. Thoene if you are interested.

The Black College Expo will be held on Saturday, January 30th at the Oakland Marriott Convention Center. Historically black colleges and universities will be there. For seniors there will be an essay contest held. You can win scholarship money by writing an essay on “Why Is A College Education Important To Me?” You must be present at the expo to win. See Ms. Hughes for more information.

Attention Seniors Please remember to give your social security number to Ms. Hughes, Ms. Kamilos or Ms. Gould some time during the next two weeks. Also, remember the FAFSA form is now available to be filled out at www.fafsa.ed.gov.

Attention Current Sophomores and Juniors Stanford Medical Youth Science Program is looking for students to participate in a five week residential program this summer. You must be economically disadvantaged, academically oriented, interested in science, health and medicine careers, mature and inquisitive and the first in your family to attend college. Please see Ms. Hughes for more information.

The American Slavic Social Hall Club is sponsoring a $1,000 scholarship for a high school senior whose ancestry is of the country formerly known as Yugoslavia. Applicants must be a citizen of the United States, who attends an accredited high school within a twenty-five radius of Sacramento. To be eligible to apply, a students must have a 3.5 GPA or higher and plan to enroll in a full-time college program.