

STUDENT AND STAFF BULLETIN

January 14, 2010

Attention Prospective Tennis Players there will be conditioning today in room 46 immediately after school.

Chinese Learning Club Meeting will be held every Thursday in room 47 during lunch.

Mandatory MESA Meeting today at 12:30 in room 16. Also, those competing in the math competition, see Ms. Bell for practice tests.

Prom Committee Meeting today in Ms. Podsednik's room 31 at lunch to discuss a new date for prom, bid selection and fundraising ideas.

Interested In Singing the Star Spangled Banner at a basketball game, please see Mr. Ousley.

Attention National Honor Society Seniors Applications for a $13,000 scholarship from NHS must be postmarked by January 15, 2010. See Ms. Thoene if you are interested.

Attention Seniors the next payment of $100 will be due Tuesday, January 19th. Please turn in payments to Ms. Podsednik's room 31.

Because of the High Number of Students wanting to audition for "Rent" we will be having auditions to get into the class on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week from 3:15 to 4:30. These auditions are not for particular roles, but to be enrolled in the class. Students will be able to audition for roles once they have been selected to be in the class. Every student wanting to audition must have a parent-signed permission slip (available in room 13) prior to auditioning.

Last Day to sign up for the Ashland trip to view plays performed at the Oregon Shakespeare Festival will be Wednesday, January 20th. See Ms. Bell ASAP.

The Black Youth Leadership Project is hosting a one-day open house at the State Capitol for African American high school students interested in California politics, public policy, civics, governmental service or community service on Friday, February 26th. See Ms. Hughes for contact information.

The Black College Expo will be held on Saturday, January 30th at the Oakland Marriott Convention Center. Historically black colleges and universities will be there. For seniors there will be an essay contest held. You can win scholarship money by writing an essay on "Why Is A College Education Important To Me?" You must be present at the expo to win. See Ms. Hughes for more information.

Attention Seniors Please remember to give your social security number to Ms. Hughes, Ms. Kamilos or Ms. Gould some time during the next week. Also, remember the FAFSA form is now available to be filled out at www.fafsa.ed.gov.

-OVER-

Attention Current Sophomores and Juniors Stanford Medical Youth Science Program is looking for students to participate in a five week residential program this summer. You must be economically disadvantaged, academically oriented, interested in science, health and medicine careers, mature and inquisitive and the first in your family to attend college. Please see Ms. Hughes for more information.

The American Slavic Social Hall Club is sponsoring a $1,000 scholarship for a high school senior whose ancestry is of the country formerly known as Yugoslavia. Applicants must be a citizen of the United States, who attends an accredited high school within a twenty-five mile radius of Sacramento. To be eligible to apply, a students must have a 3.5 GPA or higher and plan to enroll in a full-time college program. Applications are available in the front office.

The Sacramento Chapter of Physicians for Social Responsibility is pleased to announce its 2010 scholarship essay contest open to high school seniors in Sacramento and surrounding counties. A total of $10,250 in scholarship money will be awarded to the top ten winners. Detailed contest instructions and entry forms are available on the PSR/Sacramento website at www.sacprs.org. For additional information or questions, e-mail info@sacprs.org or call (916) 955-6333.