

STUDENT AND STAFF BULLETIN

March 4, 2010

After School Drop-In Art Studio is open every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 3:15 to 4:15 in room 64 for anyone interested in painting murals to hang up around campus or to work on any other art projects.

Millions of Children in polio-endemic countries know that a purple pinkie means freedom from polio. Make a contribution of at least $1 to PolioPlus. Have Interact volunteers mark your pinkie with purple dye during lunch from today through March 12th in the quad. Every dollar donated provides four doses of the vaccine. The purple pinkie will serve as a personal symbol of helping children become free from polio forever.

Mandatory Meeting for All Clubs and Classes who would like to participate in the Multi-Cultural Fair tomorrow during lunch in room 66.

ASB will present "Little Rascals" tomorrow from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m. for $1 admission and there will be food for sale. In honor of this movie Friday will also be "Pajama Day." No lingerie or boxers will be allowed; wear pajama pants and shirts with sleeves. Students dressed inappropriately will be sent home or given consequences accordingly.

Key Club's Open Mic Night will be held on Friday, March 12th from 6 to 9 p.m. All proceeds will be donated to Pediatric Trauma Prevention. If you are interested in performing contact Macey Sanchez.

Jeremy Gray, Sarah Rothaus, and Sarah-Michael Gaston are presenting the Shakespeare play "Much Ado About Nothing" downtown at the Sacramento Theatre Company. Support your fellow classmates and see the show starting March 10th – 14th. More information is available in the office. Ask your English or History Teachers about extra credit assignments related to this presentation.

Attention Sophomores and Juniors there will be a free, five-week Healthcare Career Summer Academy this summer at Sac City College. You can earn college credits if you take this class. Please see Ms. Hughes for more information.

Southgate Recreation District is doing summer hiring. Job announcements and applications are in the counseling office. You must be 16 to qualify for these jobs.

-OVER-

The Sacramento Chapter of Physicians for Social Responsibility is pleased to announce its 2010 scholarship essay contest open to high school seniors in Sacramento and surrounding counties. The prompt for this year's contest is the Native American saying, "We do not inherit the earth from our ancestors, we borrow it from our children." Seniors must submit an original essay of 500 words or fewer describing their thoughts on this saying. The deadline for essay submission is midnight on March 10, 2010. A total of $10,250 in scholarship money will be awarded to the top ten winners. Detailed contest instructions and entry forms are available on the PSR/Sacramento website at www.sacprs.org. For additional information or questions, e-mail info@sacprs.org or call (916) 955-6333.

The Sacramento Regional Science and Engineering Fair encourages and rewards scientific, technological and engineering excellence to high school and middle school students in the Greater Sacramento Region. The fair will be held March 26-27 at Rosemont High School in Sacramento. Get more information at www.srsefair.org.

Scholarships For Juniors in the amount of $10,000 are available from Nordstrom. See Ms. Gould for more information, or go to their website at www.Nordstrom.com/scholarship.

The Contemporary Show "The Jammies" featuring local high school musicians will take place at the Crest Theater. Tickets are on sale for $8, see Natasha von Kaenel. Also, on Saturday, March 6th, West Campus Drum Line will perform at the Classical Jammies at the Mondavi Center. A bus will leave from West Campus. See Mr. Ousley in room 9 for tickets.

Attention Sophomores and Juniors The University of Oregon is hosting an information reception for high school sophomores and juniors, as well as their parents. It will be held on Saturday, March 27th at 1:00 p.m. at the Sheraton Grand Sacramento. Please see Ms. Hughes for more information.

Attention Juniors If you are a junior who has a strong academic record and an annual household income of less than $60,000, you can apply for a scholarship to Questbridge. If interested, please come by the counseling center to pick up an information flyer. The application is due March 29th.