

STUDENT AND STAFF BULLETIN

March 8, 2010

Millions of Children in polio-endemic countries know that a purple pinkie means freedom from polio. Make a contribution of at least $1 to PolioPlus. Have Interact volunteers mark your pinkie with purple dye during lunch from today through March 12th in the quad. Every dollar donated provides four doses of the vaccine. The purple pinkie will serve as a personal symbol of helping children become free from polio forever.

Key Club's Open Mic Night will be held on Friday, March 12th from 6 to 9 p.m. All proceeds will be donated to Pediatric Trauma Prevention. If you are interested in performing contact Macey Sanchez.

Jeremey Gray, Sarah Rothaus, and Sarah-Michael Gaston are presenting the Shakespeare play "Much Ado About Nothing" downtown at the Sacramento Theatre Company. Support your fellow classmates and see the show starting March 10th – 14th. More information is available in the office. Ask your English or History Teachers about extra credit assignments related to this presentation.

Attention Sophomores and Juniors there will be a free, five-week Healthcare Career Summer Academy this summer at Sac City College. You can earn college credits if you take this class. Please see Ms. Hughes for more information.

Southgate Recreation District is doing summer hiring. Job announcements and applications are in the counseling office. You must be 16 to qualify for these jobs.

Reminder Payments for AP tests are due March 23rd by 4:00 p.m. Please pay Ms. Jones. Checks should be made payable to West Campus High School.

Peter Burnett Elementary School is looking for student volunteers to help out with a Family math Night Event on March 25th. Volunteers would be running a booth and assisting students with elementary math problems. See Ms. Kamilos for details.

The Sacramento Regional Science and Engineering Fair encourages and rewards scientific, technological and engineering excellence to high school and middle school students in the Greater Sacramento Region. The fair will be held March 26-27 at Rosemont High School in Sacramento. Get more information at www.srsefair.org.

Scholarships For Juniors in the amount of $10,000 are available from Nordstrom. See Ms. Gould for more information, or go to their website at www.Nordstrom.com/scholarship.

Attention Sophomores and Juniors The University of Oregon is hosting an information reception for high school sophomores and juniors, as well as their parents. It will be held on Saturday, March 27th at 1:00 p.m. at the Sheraton Grand Sacramento. Please see Ms. Hughes for more information.

Attention Juniors If you are a junior who has a strong academic record and an annual household income of less than $60,000, you can apply for a scholarship to Questbridge. If interested, please come by the counseling center to pick up an information flyer. The application is due March 29th.
